FORTY PROFESSORS AND 120 STUDENTS GATHER FOR TWO STATE CONFERENCES

Prominent Men of Southern Colleges and Universities Address Student Delegates to Y. M. C. A. Convention

STUDENT SECRETARY KARL ZERFOSS DIRECTS

Forty faculty members and 120 student delegates from the colleges and universities of the State gathered at the University last Saturday for the State Y. M. C. A. and faculty conference. Among the most prominent men who address the delegates were Dr. O. E. Brown, of Vanderbilt University faculty, now "Y" secretary at Camp Oglethorpe, Ga.; J. Lovell Murray, New York, educational secretary of the Student Volunteer Movement; W. H. Tinker, Y. M. C. A. secretary of the South; H. L. Seamons, State Student secretary of Ohio. Dr. Fortune of Transylvania and Dr. Frank L. McVey.

The conference was under the direction of Karl Zerfoss, former student of the University and now State Student Y. M. C. A. secretary, to whose earnest work and well laid plans the success of the conference was largely due.

The first meeting was held Friday evening in the Y. M. C. A. rooms with an attendance of 114. Dr. McVey made an address in which he said the welcome which he extended was in a spirit of realization that such bodies would solve the world problems in the years to come.

Dr. Benjamin Bush led the devotional exercises and in a short talk pointed out the significance of service in religion. A double quartet from the Chandler Normal School sang several popular glee club numbers.

Edward F. Dabney, a junior in the College of Law, was elected student chairman of the conference. A. E. Morris, of Centre College, was elected recording secretary.

The faculty and student representatives met together Saturday morning for the devotional exercises led by Dr. Henry Meiers, of Centre College; addresses on "Bible Study" by Dr. A. W. Fortune, "Social Service," by President McVey, and "The Obligation of Students to Carry On," by Dr. Brown.

The two bodies then separated, the faculty men adjourning to another room for their special program, while the student delegates broke up into groups for the discussion of different subjects. R. F. Sellers, Y. M. C. A. secretary at Berea College, took charge of the groups of college Y. M. C. A. presidents; Doctor Murray took those interested in the Student Volunteer Movement; Mr. Seamons, a group to discuss social service, and Mr. Tinker the Bible study workers.

Dean C. R. Melcher presided at the faculty conference. The speakers were Judge Lyman Chalkley, of the

TENNESSEANS ARE EASY FOR WILDCAT ATHLETES

Kentucky Makes Shift or Two in Lineup But Winning Game Results; Score is 30 to 14.

DISHMAN UNEXCELLED

Kentucky clouded up and rained all over Tennessee last Friday night in the University gym, when the Wildcat basketball quintet defeated the Tennesseans by a score of 30 to 14.

The game was fast and clean, but the boys who hail from the Dixie side of Cumberland gap were smothered from start to finish. Once in a while they got their hands on the ball, but they saw it passed from Wildcat to Wildcat and shot thru the net more times than they held it. The Kentuckians got off to a good start and kept the going good. At no time during the hard fought game were they in danger.

New Lineup Presented.

In the Tennessee game the Wildcats displayed rare form. Probably it was because of the shifts and changes in the lineup. Dishman who is probably considered the best guard in the State, if not in the South, was started as forward, playing opposite Lavin who made his interesting debut in the Cincinnati game. Everett continued as center as did Burnham at guard. George Zerfoss played the other guard position. Thomas was out of the fun at the start, but he was shot in soon enough to put over some good work.

Every Man is Good.

The unexcelled star of the contest was Dishman. Tho playing forward almost the entire game, he was all over the floor blocking, smashing and breaking up each attempt the Tennesseans started. Then, too, he got in his hand

MAJOR BYARS TO BE GREETED BY REVIEW

A review of the 300 members of the R. O. T. C. Unit will be held Friday at the regular drill hour to greet the newly appointed professor of military science and tactics at the University, Major David O. Byars. This will be the first review since the S. A. T. C. was demobilized, December 20.

The hour for the review is 11:45 o'clock, which is now the regular drill period for the cadet battalion since it was changed from 7:45 o'clock.

TRACK TEAM STOCK GOING UP EACH DAY

Wilhelm Comes Back and Grabfelder, Ten Second Man, Matriculates in University

Together with a likely looking bunch of candidates, the return of one star and matriculation of one of the best track men ever turned out at Louisville High school, the 1919 track season at this University promises to be worth while. Jimmy Wilhelm, who attended this University last year, has returned. Louisville high school furnishes a ten-second man in the person of Earl Grabfelder's brother who matriculated this week. The boy is said to be even better than "Grabby" was.

Even tho there is pretty good material on hand the track squad and Coach Gill are now working under difficulties for the reason that outdoor work is impossible because of the condition of Stoll Field. During the interim between the present muddy and the hoped for fast track, members of the squad are loosening their muscles and working up their speed on the indoor track in the University gymnasium.

Approximately thirty students have signified their intention of coming out for track. Among these are Planck, Kahn and Knight, letter men; DeBrovey, Foreman, Waller, Gray, Propps, Lavin and Gay.

STROLLERS ADMIT ONLY TWENTY-SIX CANDIDATES

Membership Committee is Forced to Strict Censorship, by Large Number of Applications

Twenty-six successful candidates from a field of over seventy-five is the result of the Stroller membership race. Competition was keen and a few favorites may have failed to get under the wire, but the membership committee in rejecting such a large per cent. of the applications, hopes not to discourage the candidates from coming out for amateur night next year. No junior or senior applications from old students were considered, and but few sophomores' dramatic achievement lists were formidable enough to pass the strict censorships.

The play committee expects to announce its selection within the next week, with rehearsals beginning as soon as manuscripts can be obtained from the publisher. All new members are invited and all old members are expected to try out for parts.

The names of those admitted to membership follow. Upon the payment of the fifty cent initiation fee their names will be entered upon the roll book.

WARTIME ENERGY AND METHODS TO BE APPLIED TO KENTUCKY PROBLEMS

State Conference on Kentucky Problems Faces Reconstruction Period Full of Hope and Determination

UNIVERSITY HOST TO SIX HUNDRED DELEGATES

NINE LETTER MEN FORM NUCLEUS FOR BASEBALL

Squad Called Out Last Monday; New Comers are Promising

If the weather of the last few days keeps on coming strong, the crack of ball and bat will soon be heard on Stoll Field for Coach Gill issued a call last Monday for 'varsity baseball candidates. The outlook for a high caliber team seems highly promising.

Nine baseball letter men answered the call for practice. They were George Zerfoss, captain and shortstop; Else McClelland, pitcher and 1918 captain; Doc Laslie, pitcher; Henry Thomas, catcher; Propps, third base, Cambron, second base; Kahn, left field, Muth, center field, and Mizrach, right field. Newcomers were Slomer, pitcher from O. M. I.; Winters, pitcher from Owensboro High; Dishman, first base; Blakey, third base; Wood, pitcher and infielder; Brown, short stop from Louisville High; Faulconer and Morris from Lexington High, and several others whose names couldn't be learned.

Zerfoss, Captain and Shortstop. From the list given above it is seen that the University has enough "K" men to make a baseball team. George Zerfoss, who will captain the squad this year, has several years of good baseball to his credit. He is one of the best infielders in the South and is no slouch with the stick.

McClelland is veteran of the squad. He has pitched varsity ball for three years and has won more than one game for himself. His good right arm was not at its best last year, but woe to the batsmen that face his fast and curved ones this season, "Doc" Laslie, the other letter pitcher, won himself a name and several games last year.

Infield Looks Good.

Thomas is good behind and at the

KERNEL NOTICE

Members of the Kernel staff will please get all assignments from the desk of the managing editor in the Journalism Department on Friday or Saturday of each week. This applies to all contributors who have regular assignments to cover. You will find your instructions on the hook below your name. If these are attended to promptly, the copy will be in by Tuesday noon.

The University of Kentucky was host to about 600 delegates to the Problems Conference this week and has profited greatly by its hospitality. The discussion of such questions as made up the program of the conference is certain to have an effect on the life of the University and every student that will help. Association with the big men of the State and with big men from outside the State, is sure to enlarge our academic outlook.

Determination to continue the community relation and the earnestness that has marked Kentucky's part in the war in the solution of after-war problems, was the theme of the Conference on State Problems of Kentucky, the first conference of its kind yet held in the South. The first meeting of the conference was called to order by Judge Edward W. Hines, of Louisville, Tuesday morning.

The program Tuesday consisted of addresses by President McVey and Arthur W. Macmahon, of Washington, assistant chief of the Federal Agencies Section, Council of National Defense. Community singing was led by Professor Lampert and consisted of patriotic songs by the audience.

In his address on "Some of Kentucky's problems," President McVey spoke of the importance of a more liberal education and a more sympathetic attitude on the part of civic and State committees toward it, as being essential in solving the problems facing the schools. He emphasized the necessity of having a better school system and a more adequate organization recalling that there are only 220 high schools in the State, and only 2,400 seniors annually graduating yearly from these schools. He also mentioned the health problems confronting Kentucky, revealing excerpts of the reports of the war department concerning men sent from Kentucky to national army camps which indicated the need of a larger program of public health. As a remedy, he suggested better sanitation and larger and more comprehensive views relating to ventilation and care of public buildings. President McVey also called to mind the declining fertility of the soil and the importance of a change in agriculture to meet this condition. He connected with this the necessity of building good roads and the establishment of the agricultural population as an independent people, which he said was "the backbone of the Commonwealth."

In Kentucky industries were discussed and he emphasized that these problems must be adjusted in such a way as to insure successful co-operation.

Chairman Hines emphasized the idea of keeping the "community spirit" which was aroused during the war, alive and active during peace in order that these problems might be more easily solved and a real Democracy established.

Prof. Macmahon of the Department of Law, of Columbia University, now on a leave of absence in government work in his discussion of the "Reconstruction of the United States," said that the present problems were not new ones, but old ones brought into notice by the war. He said that these problems require increasing community organization for their solution and that the war had created a new right for the unemployed, the right of every man willing to work to have regular employment at adequate pay.

He told of problems growing out of conflicting interests, but expressed the confidence that organization of community life would be an effective adjustment.

Judge Thomas D. Hines of South Dakota, who recently returned from overseas with the Y. M. C. A., spoke in the place of Prof. Elwood, who was not present. In his introductory remarks, he paid tribute to the works of President McVey. He said that returning soldiers would not tolerate camouflage, but would demand real things, and added that this fact might prove a stimulus to the undertaking of Kentucky's reconstruction.

DR. FUNKHOUSER TO ADDRESS AG. SOCIETY

On March 10th Dr. Funkhouser will address the Agricultural Society at its regular meeting at 7:30 p. m. Dr. Funkhouser is the head of the Zoology Department, and in spite of the fact that he has only been here since the beginning of this year is one of the best known and most popular members of the faculty on the campus. He will deliver the address which he gave to the mechanical engineering society by special request.

The meeting is open to the student body.

DADDY BOLES' STARS TO OPPOSE CITY Y. M.

The star members of "Daddy" Boles' faculty "gym" class will show their forms (beg pardon—form) Saturday night in a volley-ball game with the City Y. M. C. A., which will precede the mix-up with Miami. The Y. M. C. A. team is headed by George R. Smith, a prominent alumnus of this University, while the super-annuated Wildcats have not chosen their captain.

Kentucky's line-up follows:

Owens, Vansell, Lampert, James, Summers, Bureau, Smith, Butte, Freeman, Mable.

FACULTY FACTS

DR. TIGERT COMING HOME

"Tige is coming home." This is the message received by Doctor Boyd in a letter from Coblenz, Germany.

"In regard to my return to Lexington," writes Doctor Tigert, "let me hasten to say that I have been planning to return in the summer the Y. M. C. A. expects to have employment for everyone available for at least another year. I am very grateful to you for allowing me to come for the year, and I am sure that my experience here will render me more efficient upon my return. I have learned more psychology of a certain kind than I could have learned in many years in a laboratory.

At present Doctor Tigert is employed in lecturing to the A. E. F., "I am now in the lecture business pure and simple. I am going thru the A. E. F. just lecturing. I spent several weeks in France around Dijon and Chaumont before I joined the army of occupation some weeks ago. I had a most interesting trip up here—crossing the old battlefields of the Marne and passing thru some very historical points," Dr. Tigert continues.

"My work just now is to work up a better appreciation of what our Allies have accomplished in the war, as our boys have had little opportunity to know what other countries have done; to give historical instruction; to entertain to some extent, and help the morale of the boys in every way possible. I have four lectures that I use for the most part: "Our Allies," "The Ex-Kaiser," "The Cross of Iron," (a modification of the address that I made in chapel last year), and "The League of Nations." So far I have got along finely. I have spoken to thousands of soldiers and officers and have never had an egg thrown at me yet. Perhaps the price is prohibitive—but yet I get by.

"The schedule that I have now will not be completed until about the middle of April. This will take me thru the American Army of Occupation."

Miss Sweeney With A. E. F.

Miss Mary E. Sweeney, former head of the home economics department, now with the A. E. F. abroad is "working too hard—otherwise doing fine, according to a card received by Doctor Boyd from Coblenz, Germany.

"Miss Sweeney is here," writes Doctor Tigert, "and is doing a splendid work."

OLD STROLLER STAR SAYS HE WILL LEAD

"I don't know who expects to play the lead, but I am going to give him a run for his life," is the message Emery Frazier, former student and Stroller star, sends back in writing University authorities that he will return to school on March 10.

Frazier was recently discharged from the army. When in the University, he was a popular student and was leading man in "Father and the Boys," and "The Lion and the Mouse," '16 and '17 Stroller productions.

Postponed Engagement.

(Purdue Exponent.)

I sincerely hope that this postponed winter does not decide to fulfill its engagement during the canoeing season.

Miami Grid Champs Star Abroad

(Miami Student.)

Three of the eleven football champions of France are Miami men, who are extending the fame of the Big Red eleven even to Europe. With Bauer at left end, Shupp at left tackle and Red Hale at center, it is not surprising that the pride of the 136th F. A., Col. Mitchell's Cincinnati team, should be the champions of France.

The gridiron for the game between the 136th F. A. and the Cleveland team of the 135th, was laid out on an old battlefield near St. Mihiel. Old wig-wag flags marked the side lines, and the goal posts were ex-signal poles.

The side lines were filled with both the contending regiments, as well as the thousands of curious Frenchmen.

Obeysing Orders.

(Florida Alligator.)

He was a new but conscientious soldier on duty as sentry, one evening at one of the national camps. As an officer appeared the "rookie" called "Halt."

The officer obeyed, but the sentry called again: "Halt."

"See here," said the officer, "I halted the first time!"

"Yes, but the sergeant told us to say 'Halt' three times and then fire."

Needless to say, the officer did not linger.

COMMITTEE ON DEBATE MAKES ARRANGEMENTS

Arguments With Center College and Transylvania Will Be Held On April 24

FACTS ARE OUTLINED

The Committee on Oratory and Debate has completed arrangements for the intercollegiate debate to be held this year. The debates against Centre College and Transylvania University will be held on April 24. The trials in which the teams will be chosen will be held March 11-14. There will be no debate with the University of Cincinnati this year. The law school debate will be postponed until next fall. It is that that the University will be able to hold a triangular debate with the law schools of Vanderbilt and Cincinnati in December.

The following facts concern the debates for this semester:

1. Proposition for the debate this year: Resolved, That the American system of trial by jury should be abolished. (Constitutionality admitted.)
2. Date of debate, April 24, 1919.
3. This year U. of K. will have two teams of two men each. The affirmative team will debate with Transylvania in the University chapel. The U. of K.'s negative team will debate an affirmative team representing Centre College at Danville, Ky.
4. The time and order of speakers in the debates will be as follows:

Constructive speeches:

- First affirmative, 15 minutes.
- First negative, 15 minutes.
- Second affirmative, 15 minutes.
- Second negative, 15 minutes.

Rebuttal speeches:

- First negative, 10 minutes.
- First affirmative, 10 minutes.
- Second negative, 5 minutes.
- Second affirmative, 5 minutes.

5. An important amendment to the constitution of the association was passed at the conference on February 10. Heretofore only undergraduates in the College of Arts and Science have been eligible to represent the University in these debates. This provision was changed to make all undergraduates in all colleges eligible to debate. The provision did, however, eliminate all men who have been regularly enrolled for more than four years and all who are over 27 years of age.

A new plan will be followed in choosing men to represent the University this year. This plan has been worked out by the Senate Committee on Oratory and Debate and has for its objects the promotion of interest in the literary societies and the raising of the standard of the intercollegiate debates.

The Union Literary Society will furnish the team which will represent the University against Transylvania University in Lexington. The Patterson Society will furnish the team which will represent the University against Centre College in Danville.

A student who wishes to compete for a place on the varsity debate teams may do so by first becoming a member of one of the literary societies. Both literary societies welcome new members. The trials for places on the teams will be held in the societies under the supervision of the Committee on Oratory and Debate on March 11-14. In the trial each contestant will be allowed ten minutes in which to speak on the side of the proposition he desires to discuss.

at some goal shooting for the Wildcats, scoring 10 of the 30 points or making five "mean" goals from the floor. Everett, at center, proved to be a pleasant surprise, getting the jump on his opponent and four field goals for Kentucky. Burnham, who thru the entire season has spoken for himself in basket ball rather than let the different sportwriters on Lexington newspapers juggle his name, played his usual hard, energetic game. Lavin, too, comes in for a share of the glory, altho he fell just a little below the mark he set in the Cincinnati and Centre games. The lad from Paris was especially good on floorwork, making straight, sure passes which counted for goals on the ball's next journey. Zerfoss played a conscientious game at guard. Thomas and Parker went in towards the last of the game, but neither of them were "also rans."

Wildcats Even Standing

For Tennessee, Reeder and Bell did the best work. They were especially accurate in making distance shots good. Lack of teamwork was the most glaring fault of the visitors. When one of the quintet had the ball, the others were hard to find.

By the victory Friday night Kentucky evened the standing between the two teams for the season, the Wildcats being defeated on the floor of the Tennessee aggregation by a score of 46 to 22.

The score and lineups follows:

Kentucky	Tennessee
Lavin (4).....F.....	Reeder (4)
Dishman (10)....F.....	Bell (2)
Everitt (8).....C.....	Jones (0)
Burnham.....G.....	Calloway (2)
Zerfoss.....G.....	Majors

Referee, Hansen, lieutenant of Transylvania, substitutions, Thomas (4) for Zerfoss, Parker (2) for Lavin, Tennessee, Trautman (2) for Bell. Goals thrown, Lavin, Kentucky (4), Tennessee, Reeder, 4. Time of halves 15 minutes.

ker trophy cup will be held after the intercollegiate debates this year. It is expected to create a great deal of interest because the Union and Patterson societies are both determined to win the cup this year.

The Committee on Oratory and Debate which is promoting interest in the activity this year is composed of three members of the faculty, Professors J. T. C. Noe, L. L. Dantzler and E. C. Mable. Student representatives who sit with this committee are E. A. Dabney of the Union Literary Society, E. S. Dummit of the Patterson Literary Society and W. J. Kallbreier of the Henry Clay Society. Professor E. C. Mable will coach the debate teams this year.

PAN HELLENIC DANCE TO BE FRIDAY NIGHT

Major Event on Social Calendar to be Informal This Year; Grand March Will Be Held.

The Pan Hellenic Dance of the University of Kentucky, the major event of the University's social calendar, will be held Friday evening from eight thirty until one o'clock, in the ballroom of the Phoenix Hotel.

This year the event will not be given formally in regard to dress. However, the Grand March will be held as usual, being led by the President of the Pan Hellenic Council, Edward S. Dabney, and Miss Lucy Young, followed by the members of the council and the members of the fraternities.

The event is always an enjoyable occasion, but the Pan Hellenic Dance this year promises to surpass any former occasion, because of the presence of so many of the boys who have been away from the University and the fraternities for as many months in the various phases of war work.

The music will be furnished by Smith's Saxophone Quintet. The walls of the ballroom will be decorated with the shields of the fraternities. A luncheon will be served in the Phoenix Hotel dining room during the intermission between the tenth and eleventh dances.

Some out-of-town visitors expected are: Miss Lula Swinney, Louisville, Miss Jane Adams, Frankfort, Miss Jane Williams, Frankfort, Miss Myra Warren, Louisville, Miss Elizabeth Gaines, Frankfort, Miss Lucie Smith, Maysville, Miss Caroline Phillips, Flemingsburg, Miss Elizabeth Hayes, Elizabethtown, Winona Cormichael, Louisville, Miss Margaret Mantle, Elizabethtown, Miss Anna Grayot, Frankfort, Miss Evelyn Smith, Maysville, Miss Virginia Cresap, Elizabethtown, Miss Daisy Thomas Albert, Danville, Miss Fannie Grosse, Elizabethtown, and Miss Marion Massie, Elizabethtown.

The order of dances, the no-breaks and dance are as follows:

1. Fox Trot—"I'll Think of You."
2. One Step—"Indianola."
3. Waltz—"Sweetheart of Sigma Chi Sigma Chi."
4. One Step—"A Good Man Now-a-Days is Hard to Find."
5. Waltz—"Kiss Me Again." Alpha Tau Omega.
6. Fox Trot—"I Say She Does."
7. Waltz—"Rose in the Bud." Phi Delta Theta.
8. Fox Trot—"Smiles."
9. One Step—"Tickle Toe."

NEW DAY DAWNING FOR UNIVERSITY.

Kentucky is standing out as never before, in her realization of responsibility to the new world order. Kentucky sees and knows, for the first time that she has a part to play, a mission to fulfill in world events. Kentucky, awakened, squares her shoulders, and, looking the problems straight in the face, marches forward.

What is it that Kentucky is stressing in this day of democracy?—a larger responsibility of citizenship. True democracy is built only in this way.

Many things point toward the fact that she has taken her place with her sister states and universities in solving the mutual questions of international, national and State betterment. Last week a conference for Road Builders was held on the campus. Professor D. V. Terrell, of the Department of Civil Engineering, presented a plan for the construction of a State highway system and a resolution was unanimously adopted to petition the Legislature to enact laws providing for a State highway system to be maintained by the State and Federal governments. Kentucky will have good roads.

Last week also the annual State Y. M. C. A. conference met at the University. Such men as J. Lovel Murrey and "Dad" Elliott were on the program and the findings of the body showed that Kentucky will stand for Christian manhood in the new order of things.

The University had a representative at the first National Student Y. W. C. A. Conference held at Evanston. There, it was decided that each state, each university, and each individual had a contribution to make toward the reconstructing of the world. Kentucky will now stand for a more comprehensive and sympathetic understanding of international affairs. Kentucky now will know what real world citizenship means.

The conference held by the State Council of Defense to discuss State problems has just closed. Men and women representing the National Council of Defense, U. S. Bureau of Education, Public Health Service, Red Cross, Good Roads and many more such activities were present. President McVey on Tuesday afternoon gave a resume of State needs. In his talk he voiced the national belief that a new historical epoch was opening before us. He stressed also the responsibility of citizenship, which included a greater respect for health and industry and more effective government in State and national affairs.

If, as President McVey said that out of a conference comes action, there are truly fruitful days ahead of us. Kentucky has learned many things. One thing she has learned is that responsibilities always follow privileges. We feel sure that she will act and believe that she has a distinct contribution to offer toward the new order.

(NUTS)

The Kernel's Koachman is very anxious to know whether the young bloods desire their carriage and fours for Friday night, March 7.

A number of our former would-be wearers of the croix-de-guerre escaped certain injury and discomfort when the supply of yarn gave out before they had received those dear darling sox from Annabelle, Louise or Irene. But it is another story when on their return to the campus they find a "calf" installed in the basement of the Administration building.

Now that the fashions of the present season are prevailing on and about the campus, a marked decline is noticed in the attendance of classes held in room not located on the first floors.

Remember, Freshie, that a rolling stone gathers many stitches.

Tell me something about this here League of Nations?

Well?

Who is going to pitch?

.....

Invitations of the most elaborate design have been received by a number of students, from one of the most noteworthy and the oldest fraternity on the campus, announcing a banquet to be given on June 30, 1919. The invitations are cut in the shape of a coffin in which lies a keg.

There was once a farmer from Maine, Who walked thru Poree in the rain, In crossing a river, He was hit by a flivver, Which tended to drive him in Seine.

Since the fair sex have been so eager to serve with the Colors the 20th Century historian has been eagerly scanning the war bulletins for a Joan of Arkansas. If the present red which seems to be the predominating color this season, continues in the lead, there will be several young men on this campus who might be added to the list of Joans.

The following are samples of the questions and answers, g'len and ta'en during the recent Exams.

Who played the harp before Saul?

The Queen of Sheba.

What was the Venus de Milo?

A perfect Lady.

What was the Sistine Madonna?

A sewer in Paris.

What is an octogenarian?

An 8-legged animal.

What is the motto of the United States?

Watchful waiting.

Anxious mother—"Don't you think her voice could be cultivated?"

Music Instructor—"No I think it should be harvested."

The Prohibition Amendment has been a part of the Constitution of the University since the Institution was founded. Most excellent examples are the numerous dry fountains on the campus. If a fellow expects to take a little fluid to moisten his parched throat, he must needs carry an icy-hot bottle with him. We certainly hope that the class of 1919 will plant a few palm trees around these gushing springs of nothing to give the semblance at least of an oasis.

cinnati in the Queen City early in the season, and that, according to Coach Chambers, of Cincinnati, Miami has a big fast team.

As a preliminary to the basketball game the faculty and the Lexington Y. M. C. A. will engage in volley ball. For the faculty Professors Summers, of the Law College, Vansell, of the Zoology Department, Owens, University Y. M. C. A. Secretary, Freeman and Bureau, of the Engineering College, Lampert, of the Music Department, Butt, of the History Department, James of the Vocational Educational Department, Rodes, of the College of Agriculture, and Boles of the Athletic Department, will be given a try. According to Athletic Director Boles, the faculty members are fast rounding into shape and will put up a game full of pep.

KENTUCKIAN STAFF MEETING

The Kentuckian staff will meet in the office in the Journalism rooms Friday afternoon at 3:30. Every member of the staff must be present at this time to complete plans for the publication.

1ST NATIONAL Y. W. C. A. CONFERENCE ATTENDED

Miss Mildred Graham, U. K. Representative, Brings Back Interesting Report From Student Gathering

The first national Y. W. C. A. Student Conference was held February 19-24 in Evanston, Ill., Mildred Graham attended the conference representing the University of Kentucky.

"I found out a good deal about universities in general and about the University of Kentucky in particular," said Miss Graham. "One night there was a meeting of State Universities to discuss problems peculiar to them, and there were forty-three states represented, so you see we got a general idea of what a state university was like. The most remarkable thing I learned from that meeting was that students at the various schools considered their school different from all others. I had thought Kentucky was original in that, but I found we were all alike in thinking we were different. We could work out the same problems, the only difference being in the method. The problems we are working over were being worked over from Wisconsin to Florida and Virginia to California. It was encouraging and Kentucky wasn't behind.

"Of course I was very proud to say that Kentucky had a form of Student Government. One girl from the University of Alabama said, 'We have troubles and it is work, but you just aren't in it these days without it.'

"The big idea, in the conference, and the one most stressed, was that of reconstructing the new world." "It was learned," said Miss Graham, "that students over the country were not enough interested in world affairs. They are too busy in school, but more time should be given to international events."

The findings of the Conference, more than anything else, show just what was considered and discussed.

The students were divided into small discussion groups, while similar groups were made of faculty from over the entire country. Owing to the Conference of Deans of Women in Chicago, most of the Deans were present.

The findings are as follows:

The student groups agreed that there should be:

I. A greater knowledge of world conditions.
II. A new sense of social responsibility.

III. A knowledge that the principles of Christ will better the world.

The groups came to the conclusion that the world was changing and gave evidences—the labor unrest, educational situation, spirit of internationalism. To the change in the world for the better? What part should Christianity play in the new world? Most felt that the church was not vitalized enough to be a medium of Christian democracy. The question asked was—What is going to make the changing world a recognized fact on the campus?

I. Greater and more sympathetic knowledge of world conditions.
II. Bible Study.
III. Service.
IV. Discussional groups.
V. Deeper prayer life.
VI. More exercise of individual Christianity in small things.

MIAMI VS. WILDCATS IS LAST BASKETBALL GAME

Volley Ball Game Between Faculty and Y. M. C. A. Will be Curtain Raiser

In the fall of 1917 football teams representing the University of Kentucky and Miami University fought fiercely to a tie on Stoll Field. In the spring of 1918 the Wildcat basketball team got snowbound, while on its way to Oxford, O., and was unable to continue the journey while old Jupiter Pluvius showered his wrath on Stoll Field and kept the two teams from meeting in baseball. Flu cancelled the game last fall. But if the world doesn't come to an end first the Big Red Team and Kentucky's Wildcats will meet next Friday night in the last basketball game of the season.

For the last several games Kentucky has been going at a high clip, riding rough shod over everything that gets in the way. The local basketball team will probably reach its highest stage of perfection in the Miami game Saturday night. As for Miami, nothing is known except that she defeated Cin-

bat. He worked in almost every game last year and was one of the peppiest players in uniform. Speedy Propps covered third base like a basket, picking them out of the dirt and out of the air with equal facility. Joe Cambron played his second season for the Wildcats at the keystone sack. Very few got by him.

The 1918 outfield is intact. Kahn, Muth and Mizrach play the gardens well. Muth, if memory is right, fielded an even 1,000 per cent last season. Kahn, who hung his sign out in left field, was a demon with the willow. He hit for more bases than any other man on the team.

Coach Gill Confident.

With the foregoing men as a nucleus Coach Gill is confident that a good team can be built. Dishman, who has made his letter in both football and basketball, used to cavort about on the diamonds down in Western Kentucky. Blakey played the game like a fiend several years ago. The others come with good reputations and are among the best the high schools of the State had to offer last year.

FIELD DAY; DIRT
VS. PATTERSON

Shavetails, Gobs, Leathernecks and Doughboys all rolled up their sleeves in the clean-up staged by Patterson Literary Society January 12, and eradicated every vestige of dirt from the meeting hall on the third floor of the gymnasium building.

All the approved methods of the army of the army police sergeant, supplemented by whatever stray information of the habitat of dirt the members might have had, were used to the best advantage. The room has assumed an entirely new appearance, and the members are prepared to use it with more relish until such time as the improvements promised by the remodeling program can be realized.

CAMP CHAPLAIN AND WAR SONGS FRIDAY

Chaplain William C. Sale, of Camp Shelby, will speak in chapel Friday morning. Chaplain Sale has an enviable record of religious work done at the camp, having preached the farewell sermon to all of the troops who left the camp. His subject was "Where Do We Go From Here?" and was the last word of advice the men received before their trip abroad.

Charles Butler, who has been a singer in some of the Billy Sunday meetings will sing war songs. Both these men have been accustomed to audiences numbering in the thousands, and will be able to make chapel exercises a real treat for all students.

ORCHESTRAL CONCERT
PROMISED FOR SUNDAY

The first orchestral concert of the season will be held Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m. in the chapel under the direction of Professor Lampert. Mrs. L. L. Dantzler will be the soloist of the afternoon.

This is the first of a series of concerts to be given on Sunday afternoons this spring.

H. S. CHAMPIONSHIP TO BE DECIDED IN GYM.Basketball Teams of State
Are Entered in Kentucky
Tournament Beginning
March 14.

The High School championship of Kentucky will be decided in the University of Kentucky gymnasium on March 14 and 15, when the strongest basketball teams of the State will come together in the Second Annual Tournament of the Kentucky High School Athletic Association. It is that that the fight for honors will narrow down to three teams, those representing Lexington, Louisville and Somerset High Schools.

University to Pay Expenses.

S. A. (Daddy) Boles, athletic director of the University, is making all arrangements for a successful tournament. Expenses will be paid by the University for eight players and coach to each team that participates in the tournament. "Daddy" also has plans whereby the various fraternities represented in this University will each entertain the members of one visiting team.

Several of the teams that will take part in the Kentucky tournament were in the tri-State tournament staged at the University of Cincinnati last week. Somerset, who is hot on the trail of the State championship in basketball, won a silver medal in the tournament last week by taking second place, losing in the finals to the Hamilton, O., team. Paris and Maysville also played at Cincinnati.

Strong Teams Entered.

The following teams have entered in the tournament: Louisville, Lexington, Somerset, Paris, Owensboro, Paducah, Henderson, Danville, Ashland, Covington, Newport, Maysville, Georgetown and others. Lexington High and Louisville High will have a fine chance to settle difficulties which materialized during the basketball season which will be brought to a close with the tournament. Lexington defeated Louisville in this city, while tables were turned on the homeboys in the Fall City.

A handsome silver loving cup will be given to the winner of the finals in the University tournament.

UNIVERSITY FIVE
LEADS BOWLERS

The close of the week found the University five still leading the Bowling League of the Y. M. C. A. with an average of .666, their closest competitor for first place honors being the Leader team with an average of .625.

Members of the faculty compose the University of Kentucky team.

WORLD PROBLEMSProgram For Series of Forum Lectures
Gives Promise of Treat

The first lecture of the Forum of World Problems to be conducted by the Y. M. C. A. of the University of Kentucky, will be given Thursday afternoon, March 13, at 3:45 o'clock. The free course of lectures and discussions has been arranged for the faculty, students and patrons of the University by Secretary R. W. Owen.

The topics and leaders are as follows:

Thursday, March 6—"China at the Peace Conference," Judge Lyman Chalkley.

Thursday, March 13—"Russia and Bolshevism," Professor Arthur W. Calhoun.

Thursday, March 20—"A League of Nations," Dr. Frank L. McVey.

Thursday, March 27—"Palestine and Its Problems," Dr. Benjamin J. Bush.

Thursday, April 3—"Democracy and Industry," Dr. Edward Weist.

Thursday, April 10—"Belgium Before and After the War," Victor Bogaert.

Thursday, April 17—"Mexican Problem and a World Peace," Professor William E. Butt.

Thursday, April 24—"Some Features of Our War Labor Problem," Dr. Edward J. Tuthill.

GLEE CLUB STARTS
ANEW THIS TERM

The S. A. T. C. was not an ideal promoter of the glee club and during its "Reign of Terror," the glee club was in sad straits. Since President McVey led us thru the wilderness (the mud surrounding the barracks) the club has grown steadily.

A great drawing card is the fact that a half a credit a semester is given for work of this kind. All members who were in the glee club last term have been given grades of A or B.

The program of the organization has been made out and its engagements will be made as soon as possible. The only definite announcement that can be made now is that the club will give a concert at Hamilton College sometime in April.

To promote attendance the roll will be called at the beginning of every meeting and those absent over a certain number of times will not receive their credit nor be allowed to go on the trips that are taken.

The club meets every Tuesday and Thursday at 3:30 in the band room, third story Gym building. The officers for this year are Neville Fincel, President; Terril Tappscott, Secretary and Treasurer; T. H. Green, Business Manager; Prof. Karl Lambert, Director.

WAR STUDENTS RETURN TO CLASSES AT UNIV.

Several Men Who Served "Overseas" Resume Work Towards Graduation.

Among the new students at the University this semester are many returned soldiers. In the College of Mechanical Engineering, Larry Maddox, Harold David, H. M. Milton, J. E. McClellan, Robt. Arnold, Jr. and Keevil Wallingford, have returned from home service in the army and navy and resumed work at the University.

Harry Maddox, Senior Mechanical Engineer, returned to Lexington the last part of January. He won his commission at Camp Taylor and was an instructor in the I. C. O. T. C. at Camp Grant. Harold David was released after the armistice from the O. T. C. at Fortress Monroe. He has been in school since that time. H. M. Milton was located at Camp Taylor and gained his lieutenancy there. J. E. McClellan, S. N. A., who served on the Great Lakes, Minneapolis and Key West, returned to school in February. Robert Arnold Jr., saw similar service in the S. N. A. on the Great Lakes. Keevil Wallingford, Junior Mechanical, was in the Air Mail Service of the East. He returned to school several weeks ago. Than Rice, '17, who served four months in France, has come back to take graduate work in the College of Engineering.

In the College of Agriculture, Clyde Bland and Louis Rousch are men who have come back. Mr. Bland, gunner on the U. S. S. Texas, during his eighteen months' service overseas, was fortunate enough to be present at the surrender of the German fleet. The Texas used the Bay of Firth as its base and operated in the North Sea. Mr. Bland's ship was among the guard of honor that escorted President Wilson's ship into Brest. Louis Rousch, Senior "Ag." after gaining his captain's commission at the second O. T. C. at Fort Benjamin Harrison, saw domestic service in several southern camps, including Camp Travis, and Kelly Field, Texas, and Camp Lee, Virginia.

Lieutenant Emery Frazier, prominent in University life several years ago, especially remembered among old Strollers, passed thru Lexington Friday on the way to Louisville, where he will enter the advanced training school in the artillery at Camp Taylor. Lieut. Frazier has been doing M. P. duty in Texas.

Wayne Cottingham, Lexington newspaper man, after serving in the Q. M. department at Camp Taylor, has returned to Lexington and will be a member of the Leader staff. He was a student in the College of Journalism in 1917 and would have been editor of the Kernel, if he had returned to school.

Lieutenant John Sherwood, of Cynthiana, and a graduate of the University of Kentucky, visited the University this week. He graduated in Law with the class of 1918. Lieutenant Sherwood was a member of the R. O. T. C. and was sent to Camp Grant, Illinois, where he received his commission in the infantry last August.

The Faculty Findings Committee reported that the life of the college student has been challenged as undemocratic.

I. Because students tolerate organizations that are exclusive.

II. Because leadership has been stressed rather than citizenship.

III. Because only a few have a sense of responsibility instead of all.

IV. Because they are aloof from interests of the times.

V. Because students do not apply themselves to honest thinking.

To students it suggested:

I. That the student-body shall be encouraged to estimate each year its opportunities and concrete needs and to form an objective toward which the whole college shall set itself.

II. That they apply the principles of Christian democracy to all life by a more democratic self-government by co-operation of faculty and students in solving social and religious problems by discussion groups, and by a survey to determine what students are not sharing in extra curricula work and responsibilities.

To the faculties of all universities it suggested:

I. That the faculty interest themselves in spiritual problems of students and co-operate in solving them.

II. That the faculty endeavor to remove the impression current among students that faculty opinion is intolerant of opposition, that professors furnish ready-made solutions of problems students should learn to solve for themselves, and that college often educates for information rather than for intelligence.

The Rev. R. R. Murphy, of the Presbyterian Theological Seminary at Louisville, led the devotional exercises at the student meeting in the afternoon. Doctor Murray spoke on "The Practical Problems of Missions in the Colleges," and Secretary R. W. Owen, Mr. Tinker and Mr. Seamons on "The Collection of War Work Pledges." The work of the annual Blue Ridge Conference was presented by Mr. Tinker and Doctor Brown.

Mr. Seamons had charge of the devotional service in the evening when Doctor Murray was the principal speaker. Preceding the address, there was a song service by a group of University girls and a violin solo by Professor Lampert. After the address a reception was given in the Recreation Room at Patterson Hall by the Patterson and Maxwell Hall girls.

A. J. "Dad" Elliott, who was scheduled to speak Sunday afternoon was unable to come. Dr. J. Ernest Thacker spoke instead. This closing address of the conference was delivered at the chapel to a large crowd of students and delegates. His subject was, "There is No Fault in Him."

Jimmy Hedges, former football star and graduate of the University, has returned home after more than ten months' service in the navy. For more than six months Hedges has been stationed at an aviation station just outside of Brest.

Mr. Albert Haberstro, basso cantante, and Mr. Lewis Thomas, pianist, of the faculty of the Lexington College of Music, appeared in concert Tuesday, March 4, at 8 o'clock in the ball room of the Phoenix Hotel.

Among the many prominent Lexington and University people who were patrons of the affair are: Professor and Mrs. Lampert, Dr. and Mrs. Davis Buckner, Professor and Mrs. Dantzler, Miss Frances Jewell, Dean and Mrs. Lafferty, Professor and Mrs. Zembrod and Miss Margaret McLaughlin.

A Bible class social was the feature at the community party at the Y. M. C. A. Friday night.

The entertainment for next week will be in the form of a "Dorm Feed" given for and by the residents of the Y. M. C. A. Dormitory—seventy men in all. A program of dormitory talent will be given, and the supper will be served by the women's committee of the Y. M. C. A.

"Lafayette's Visit to Lexington," was the subject of the paper read by Mrs. W. T. Lafferty before the Woman's Club Saturday. A Lexington paper says:

"A research study of the details of the visit of the idolized French marquis and general to Lexington and how he was received and honored has been made by Mrs. Lafferty and the most interesting and entertaining points told by her in delightful characteristic way."

The Lexington Garden Club is to have a most important meeting on Friday afternoon, March 7, at the home of Mrs. W. R. Thomas, on East Main street, with the president, Mrs. W. L. Carter, presiding.

The annual election of officers will be held, and the prizes of last year's contests are to be awarded.

Mr. Walter Hillenmeyer will address the members of the club on "Spring Planting; Shrubs and Perennials."

"Eligibility to membership in the club is limited to those who own a garden and take active interest in its design, management and culture. The number of membership is limited to seventy." It is unofficially understood that there is a waiting list of more than 150 persons.

Sororities Advised to Quit.
(Tulane Weekly.)

Greek letter sororities received a shock Wednesday when they were informed that they were now under a faculty ban. The blow was not unexpected, but the students did not expect it so soon. Word came from the Tulane Board of Administration saying that there would be no room for the sororities on the campus. The reason for such action is that the board finds the expense of putting up houses for the sororities almost prohibitive. The board is not favorably inclined towards them.

Dr. Dixon is in favor of Greek letter sororities, but thinks that in their present condition they are a hindrance to Newcomb activities. "When all the sororities had rooms on the campus at old Newcomb," said Dr. Dixon, "they were a great stimulus to student activities, but now they draw the girls away from the college."

The plan for the disbanding of the sororities consists mainly in the non-initiation of new members, so that in two or three years all present members will have graduated.

Florida Challenges Southeastern
(Florida Alligator.)

Last Friday in Chapel the student body of the University of Florida took an important step towards developing athletics along the right line. Through its energetic "Y" secretary Mr. G. H. White, it issued a challenge to all state colleges and universities, formerly in the Southeastern Department S. A. T. C., to a contest in general athletics; the college or university having the highest percentage of students voluntarily participating in daily athletics, to receive a silver loving cup offered by the "Y."

This is a whole-hearted movement tending toward the right physical education of the college student through a general participation of every student in some form of outdoor game. This movement aims to give the student exercise, play, and recreation from the grind of the classroom, and to cut out the grandstand athletics.

PHILOSOPHIAN ELECTS SEMESTER OFFICERS

The Philosophian Society at a called meeting held Wednesday night, February 12, voted to re-elect the entire staff of officers who were chosen last spring to serve during the first semester. It was the opinion of the society that owing to the frequent interruptions in the semester's work, the officers had been unable to prove their ability and that it would be only fair to give them an opportunity to carry out their plans. Those re-elected were Elizabeth McGowan, president; Louise Will, vice-president; Margaret Woll, secretary; Louise Mayer, treasurer; Eliza Clay Mason, corresponding secretary; Lucille Dean, sergeant-at-arms.

The work will continue along the same lines as that of last semester, the programs consisting of discussions of writers whose writings during the war are considered noteworthy. These discussions will be based on the importance of the authors in regard to the probable permanence of their contributions to literature. One meeting each month will be devoted entirely to current events, especially those which pertain to progress in the literary world.

The committee selected to choose the play for this year will be ready to make a report soon, and tryouts will begin at an early date.

WILD TABBIES ROMP ON WESLEYAN MAIDS

Miss Hayden Proves Up in Her Last Game With Kentucky's Players

Fur flew, and claws were bared when the Kittens met and defeated the Wesleyan five for the second time this season by a score of 15 to 9. This was the last game on the lady Wildcats' schedule.

Frequent fouls may have marred the finish of the game, but the spectators witnessed a spirited contest which held the interest from whistle to whistle. Wesleyan put up a game fight, and had her offensive been as spirited as her defensive, the score would have been closer.

"Bill" Hayden, who for four years has been a mainstay of the team played her last game for the University in her usual brilliant style, sharing stellar honors for Kentucky with Lilly Cromwell. "Dot" Walker's work was also worthy of mention.

For the visitors, Bernice Elwanger, a wearer of the K, of Kentucky basketball, starred.

The line-up and summary follows:
Kentucky Wesleyan
Hayden (6).....F.....Harris
Jameson.....F.....Spencer (5)
Cromwell (9).....C.....Elwanger (2)
Dean.....G.....Willey
Walker.....G.....Johnson
Score by thirds—Kentucky, 7; Wesleyan, 5; Kentucky 10; Wesleyan, 9; Kentucky, 15, Wesleyan 9. Owens of Kentucky refereed.

PROFESSOR FARQUHAR ADDRESSES Y. W. C. A.

Prof. Farquhar address the Y. W. C. A. Sunday evening at Patterson Hall. His subject was "True Religion" and it was one of the most interesting talks given at the Y. W. C. A. this year.

Mrs. L. L. Dantzler sang with Miss Ada Hardesty, as accompanist. Miss Margaret Wall presided.

A joint meeting of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. will be held Sunday evening, March 9. Dr. McVey will be the speaker and special music has been arranged.

LITERARY SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS

At the meeting of the Horace Mann Literary Society, held Thursday evening, February 27, the officers to preside this semester were elected. Miss Lucille Dean, who is proving to be a very enthusiastic and active leader, was elected president; Miss Floris Whittinghill, vice-president; Miss Lucy Cracraft, secretary and treasurer. Since the last meeting the membership of the society has been doubled, increasing from 20 to 40 members.

All students taking work in the Department of Education, and any others that are interested in the work are urged to attend the meetings which are held every Thursday evening in Professor Noe's room in the Education building. Plans are being made for a party which is to be given at Patterson Hall in honor of the new members of the society.

The program committee, Misses Virginia Helm Milner, Elizabeth Davidson and Adele Slade, have arranged a series of programs for the coming meetings.

EXHIBITION GIVEN BY ARTS & DESIGN DEPT.

The Department of Arts and Design gave an interesting exhibition Tuesday and Wednesday in the studio of Miss Beck in the new dormitory building. Several of the young ladies from the department in Japanese costume served tea in the afternoons from 3 to 6. Mesdames Boyd, Cooper and Lafferty and Harbison presided over the exhibit which included Oriental embroideries of rare textile and Japanese prints. In bringing this exhibit to the University and to Lexington the department accomplished a two-fold purpose, since it instructed students in the value of this type of education and suggested plans for decorating and redecorating homes, according to many present.

Something to Think About.

"The morning is the gate of day,
But ere you enter there
See that you set, to guard it well,
The sentinel of prayer.
So shall God's grace your steps attend.
